

TeraThink Corporation Named One of the Fastest Growing Companies in America Inc. 500 Magazine Acknowledges Dramatic Growth in Multiple Categories

VIRGINIA [August 13, 2009] - Inc. Magazine ranked TeraThink Corporation, an information technology and management consulting firm, #96 on its 28th Annual Inc. 500 report, an exclusive ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies. The list represents a complete look at the most important segment of the economy—America's independent-minded entrepreneurs.

To qualify for the 2009 Inc. 500, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by the first week of 2005, therefore able to show four full calendar years of sales. Companies also need to be U.S.-based, privately held, for profit, and independent—not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies.

"We are honored to be recognized by Inc. as one of the fastest growing companies in America," said Paul Lombardi, President and CEO of TeraThink. "It is a testament to the caliber of our employee base and our ability to continue to evolve into a more comprehensive set of service offerings. TeraThink is proud to build on our record and reputation in the federal marketplace."

Since its inception in 2002, TeraThink has grown dramatically with a 1,611.5% increase in revenue in just the past three years alone. TeraThink stabilized its revenue stream by establishing key industry partnerships; facilitating successful Mentor Protégé relationships; recruiting and retaining a talented employee base; investing in a scalable infrastructure and executive business development; and earning a positive reputation with our customers.

In addition to its national ranking, TeraThink earned #13 in the fastest growing private company in the Washington, DC metropolitan area category and #15 in the fastest growing private government service provider category. For more information about the award visit Inc. 500 listing.
